18 March 1987

Dear Iris,

Remember me! Well I am writing to ask if I might seek your help again on Tadley "family history" matters.

Some time ago I was loaned a book titled "It happened in Hampshire". I am enclosing photocopies (sorry about the poor quality) of several pages taken from the book which as you will see was one published by the W.I. before the 2nd World War. The part which was of particular interest to me was about "The Tadley Roll". It is this I am wondering if you have any knowledge and if so its whereabouts now.

My next enquiry is a delve into your records! Since it is unlikely I will get back any further with direct lines I am trying to find out as much as possible about the different family "branches". At present I am concentrating on the children of my gt-grandparents, James and Mary Jane Saunders. The majority of their children (including my granny, Emily) were born at Binfield but according to the 1881 census the three eldest were born at Tadley or Pamber. Since you have a wealth of information may I ask if you would check and see if you have a baptism entry for Richard - b 1872 at Tadley; Edward - b 1874 at Pamber and Alfred - b 1876 also at Pamber, under the surname of Monger. I say Monger as opposed to Saunders as that was the name their father's birth was registered; at the time of his marriage to Mary Jane King again in the name of Monger, and whilst I have not checked the birth indexes at St Catherine's House for all their children those that I have were registered with the name of Monger. Yet later on the Monger name was dropped and Saunders used instead. On the marriage certificate of my granny's it clearly shows Emily Saunders. My gt-aunt Lizzie who still resides in Binfield is unable to throw any light on why they changed over to being called Saunders, in fact I do not think she is aware that she was registered at birth as Monger.

Also would you check your burial records to see if there is any entry for Alfred as word has it that when quite young the poor little lad drowned in a well. I have not been able to find anything in the Binfield burial register and since I recall my granny telling me that when they were children they used to go and stay with relatives at Tadley, I wondered if the accident happened during one of their holidays there. I enclose a copy of my Saunders family tree for easy reference.

I hope you are fit and well. I can understand how you enjoy having your granddaughters and how fortunate it is that they live nearby. I always think that children who do not know or who are unable to see their grandparents lose out in life and certainly you can get away with doing things with children that you normally would not do such as skipping along the road, swinging, and all sorts of things.

I know the evenings are gradually remaining lighter but oh will I be pleased when the warmer weather comes. I cannot wait to get on and do some gardening and there are many other outside jobs to do which I shun at present from doing. Still spring should not be too long now!

I look forward from hearing from you - when you have the time.

All good wishes

Pat (Tegg)
