GOLDEN WEDDING REPORT, BASINGSTOKE GAZETTE 6/1/1989.

Golden years

FOR Bill and Doris Long, of Newtown, Tadley, the last day of 1988 was a golden milestone in their long life together.

They celebrated 50 years of marriage all spent in the cottage which is still their home.

They were married on December 31, 1938, at Ashford Hill Methodist Church when the countryside was under a blanket of snow.

On their way back to Doris's home, where her mother had arranged a reception, Bill had to get out of the wedding car and help push it up the hill.

They eventually arrived at their home from the reception when the new year was being rung in.

Throughout the 50 years, Bill and Doris have been very happy. Both are Salvationists, and they are mindful of the blessings they have received.

Bill had lived close to his present home since he was a small baby, moving to Mulfords Hill for 16 years before returning to Newtown in 1938.

Doris, formerly Miss Englefield, was born at Haughurst Hill.

They met at Doris's home when her sister Phyllis invited Bill to have Christmas tea with them.

In his younger working life Bill had a variety of jobs, mostly employed in the woods gathering timber.

He eventually was employed on maintenance at Park Pre-wett, where he worked for 11 years.

During the war he served in the Royal Artillery and after demobilisation took a job with BOAC, Aldermaston, who were on the old aerodrome site now used by the AWE.

After a spell with the Colthrop Paper Mills, Thatcham, Bill eventually returned to Aldermaston to work for the Ministry for 15 years as a crane-man, until retiring.

Doris, like many other girls of her generation, worked in domestic service. She also has memories of the days when she did a paper round in the Brimpton Common, Haughurst Hill and Axmansford areas.

At one time she was a singer in the Salvation Army.

The couple have a son and daughter, Albert and Ada, and seven grandchildren.

They celebrated the golden anniversary with a family lunch.
