TADLEY.

On Tuesday morning last, Mr. John Stacey, of this village, missed two ducks—one drake and one hen—with a brood of young chicken. One of the ducks had also just hatched off 12 young ducks. Mr. Stacey naturally thought that Reynard had paid him a visit, but on a search being made it was found that a neighbour's dog had broken its chain, and had done the mischief. The brood of 12 young ducks were strangely enough solaced the next morning by the appearance of the mother duck among her young. We hear the mischievous dog has since been destroyed.

An Inquaer was held on Tuesday last at "The New Inn," Tadley, by Mr. Spencer Clarke, the county coroner, on the body of George Monger, a labourer of Tadley, aged 83 years. Elizabeth wife of John West, a labourer West, deceased, and said she knew the him alive Saturday afternoon on noon in a meadow at Tadley, adjoining the "Fox and Hounds" Inn. He spoke to witness, and said he wanted to sit down in the shade as he had a headache. He stopped there for some time, and then went out into the road. Witness lost little, sight of him for 8 but him on the stool at the front of "Fox and Hounds" Inn. He the to get up and fell down. Witness picked him up, and put him on the stool. Witness found him out on the road afterwards, and washed his face with water. He was alive then and partly sensible. -David Monger, labourer, a son of the deceased, said that about six o'clock last Saturday evening he found his father insensible in the road.—Matthew Cottrell, labourer of Tadley, said he saw George Monger fall down in the road last Saturday evening. Nobody knocked him down. Witness did what he could to help him.—Esther Monger, wife of George Monger, a labourer living at l'amber, said that last Saturday evening she found the deceased helpless in the road. Witness helped to get him home. Witness did not think there was much life in him then. She heard him say "No" while he was by the side of the road.—Dr. Henry Charles Linden, of Tadley, said he did not know the deceased. Lest Saturday night he was called to see the deceased, who was in a cart in the Common near to his own house. He was dead when he was taken out of the cart, and had been dead for an hour. Witness examined the body superficially, and found no mark of violence. Witture of a vesset on the brain. He did not small of

Grave Reference/ Panel Number: Location: LONGUEVAL ROAD CEMETERY, Somme, France

F. 11.

Longueval is a village in the Department of the Somme, 11 kilometres east of Albert. Travel north-east from Albert on the D929 in the direction of Bapaume. After 10 kilometres take the D6 in the direction of Martinpuich and follow signs for Longueval. From Longueval crossroads continue in the direction of Maricourt, D197, for 800 metres. Longueval Road Cemetery is situated on the left hand side of the road.

Historical Information:

Longueval was the scene of furious fighting in 1916, lasting from the 14th to the 29th July, when the village was cleared by the 5th Division. It was lost in March 1918, and retaken by the 38th (Welsh) Division and the Carabineers on the 28th August, 1918. Longueval Road Cemetery was begun in September 1915, near a Dressing Station known as "Longueval Alley", or "Longueval Water Point", and it was used until January 1917. Further burials were made in August and September 1918. The graves numbered 171 at the date of the Armistice; and others were added in 1923-24 by concentrations from a wide area round Longueval. There are now over 200, 1914-18 war casualties commemorated in this site. Of these, over one-fifth are unidentified and special memorials are erected to 3 soldiers from the United Kingdom, known or believed to be buried among them. The cemetery covers an area of 1,015 square metres and is bounded by a low red brick wall.

Location:

TYNE COT CEMETERY, Zonnebeke, West-Vlaanderen, Belgium XVIII. A. 3.

Tyne Cot Cemetery is located 9 kilometres north east of Ieper town centre, on the Tynecotstraat, a road leading from the Zonnebeekseweg (N332).

Historical Information:

"Tyne Cot" or "Tyne Cottage" was the name given by the Army to a barn which stood 46 metres West of the level crossing on the Passchendaele-Broodseinde The barn, which had become the centre of five or six "pill-boxes", was captured by the 2nd Australian Division on the 4th October, 1917, in the advance on Passchendaele. One of these "pill-boxes" was unusually large, and it was used, after its capture, as an Advanced Dressing Station. From the 6th October to the end of March, 343 graves were made, on two sides of it, by the 50th (Northumbrian) and 33rd Divisions and by two Canadian units. From the 13th April to the 28th September it was in enemy hands again, and then it was recaptured, with Passchendaele, by the Belgian Army. The cemetery was enlarged after the Armistice by the concentration of graves from the battlefields of Passchendaele and Langemarck and from a few small burial grounds. It is now the largest Commonwealth War Cemetery in the world. There are now nearly 12,000, 1914-18 war casualties commemorated in this site. Of these, over 8,000 are unidentified and special memorials are erected to 38 soldiers from the United Kingdom, 27 from Canada, 15 from Australia and one from New Zealand, known or believed to be buried among them. Other special memorials record the names of 16 soldiers from the United Kingdom and four from Canada, buried in other cemeteries, whose graves were destroyed by shell fire. The cemetery covers an area of 34,941 square metres and is enclosed by a low flint wall. The Cross of Sacrifice is placed on the original large "pill-box". There are four other "pill-boxes" in the cemetery. The Eastern plots are laid out in the form of a fan, with paths radiating to the Cross; and a high flint wall, 152 metres long, follows their outline on the Eastern edge of the cemetery. This wall carries the names of nearly 35,000 soldiers from the United Kingdom and New Zealand who fell in the Ypres Salient in 1917-18 and whose graves are not known. The following were among the burial grounds from which British graves were moved into Tyne Cot Cemetery: IBERIAN SOUTH CEMETERY and IBERIAN TRENCH CEMETERY, LANGEMARCK, 1,097 metres North of Frezenberg, close to a farm called by the Army "Iberian". These contained the graves of 30 soldiers from the United Kingdom who fell in August-September, 1917, and March, 1918. KINK CORNER CEMETERY, ZONNEBEKE, on the road to Frezenberg, containing the graves of 14 soldiers from the United Kingdom, nine from Canada and nine from Australia, who fell in September-November, 1917. LEVI COTTAGE CEMETERY, ZONNEBEKE, near the road to Langemarck, containing the graves of ten soldiers from the United Kingdom, eight from Canada and three from Australia, who fell in September-November, 1917. Description:

This database is a searchable, digitized version of the indices of civil registrations in England and Wales, reported quarterly to the General Register Office (GRO) in London. This index spans the years between 1837 and 1915. Approximately 50% of the names between 1837 and 1900 have been transcribed thus far. You need the information found in an original index to request a copy of a birth certificate for the individual referenced.

Subject: Kent, Mears, Monger.

I am hoping you may be able to help me with some information about my Gran and her husband's family, who believe lived in the area.

My Gran was called Hilda Vera Maud Kent and married a Frank Mears.

I was not born before he died, which I think was abt. 1956.

I do remember his sister Nellie and I think he had a brother, Edward.

I believe my gran to have had a number of brothers and sister (Dora, Molly, Fred, Len etc.)

My gran & Grandad adopted a child (1943) - Anne Janet (my mother) who later married a James Frank Hartley (my dad). I never knew my dad and I have no contact with my mother (for reasons I'd rather not explain).

I spent most of my childhood with my Gran in Chippenham, Wiltshire. Who sadly died in 1978.

When I was a child I used to spend some of my summer holidays with Uncle John & Aunty Molly (Monger) who lived at Oak Cottage, West Heath, Baughurst.

I am sure they had at least one son called Peter who I think married a lady called Christine - I am sure I went to the wedding.

I think they also had a daughter and it was her daughter Tracy I used to play with during my holidays there as she came to visit too, from Kidderminster I think.

From these holidays I also remember a Hazel.

I am hoping to visit the area later this year to fill in some memories and family history.

I hope you are able to find time to help or perhaps direct me to some source where I may be able to learn more about my family history.
