Fire guts old cottage

EMBERS from a burning shed are thought to have set fire to a 19th century thatched cottage on Monday afternoon.

The flames gutted the derelict listed cottage off Millers Road, Tadley. The disused wooden shed next to it was also destroyed.

No one was hurt, although two firemen fell through the roof of a single-storey outhouse.

Chris Stevens, station officer in charge of three pumps from Basingstoke, said: "Part of the roof and some of the wall of the outhouse went down, but there was no problem."

Tadley sub-fire officer Ray Evans said: "When we arrived the shed was well alight and had spread to the cottage."

The cottage is near to a filling station but Mr Evans said it was not in danger because the wind was blowing the other way.

● Firemen go into action as flames take a hold on the 19th century thatched cottage.

Thirty firemen and five pumps were called out to tackle the blaze, which started shortly before 4pm.

Firemen stayed until arson. He added that the shed contained paint pots capable of spontaneous combustion on such a hot day. Det Con Steve Allen, of Tadley police, said there was no evidence of arson.

Initial reports that two children were missing was a false alarm.

The shed was also used as a play area for

GORDON SAUNDERS

Much loved and admired conductor of the Basingstoke Concert Band from January 1995 passed away on Tuesday.
His musical knowledge, engaging personality and skill with the baton, brought us from nowhere to center stage. He will be sadly missed by us all.

A life spent in music

A TADLEY band leader who "lived for his music" has died.

Respected conductor Gordon Saunders, 73, of Tadley Hill, was the conductor and musical director of the Tadley Band for 30 years, until ill health forced him to give up the post three years ago.

However, Mr Saunders continued on as conductor with the Basingstoke Concert Band until his death on Tuesday, October 1.

Chairman of the Tadley Band, Tony Flayhive, said Mr Saunders was very well known among brass band organisations nation wide.

By Clint Lambert

"He did a lot for the band in the time he spent with us," he said. "And was a very talented trumpet player in his own right."

Keith Whitmore, a former member of the London Philharmonic Orchestra, served with Mr Saunders in the Royal Medical Corps Band in 1947.

He said Mr Saunders was a man who was entirely dedicated to his music.

"He spent his life performing music with such organisations as the Morris Motor Band and was a Band Sergeant Major with the Sandhurst Royal Military Academy Band," said Mr Whitmore.

"He was also the conductor with the Thames Valley Police Band and was responsible for the success of the Basingstoke Concert Band following his appointment as conductor and musical director."

Mr Whitmore added that he had enjoyed having Mr Saunders living nearby.

"It gave me an opportunity to talk about music," he said.

Basingstoke Concert Band committee member, Steve Barlin, who knew Mr Saunders in a professional capacity for 22 years, said his death was unexpected.

"Although he has suffered from heart problems, Gordon attended the band practice the Wednesday before, which he never missed," he said.

"He lived for music and kept on conducting right up until the end of his life, which is what he always wanted."

Mr Barlin said the band has discussed performing a memorial concert for Mr Saunders.

"The whole band has talked about it and we just need to set a date to perform," he said.

Mr Saunders was married in 1950 and has two daughters and a number of grandchildren who still live locally.

Additional Information: Son of Henry and Mary Saunders, of "South View," Mulfords Hill, Tadley, Basingstoke.

Cemetery: HIGHLAND CEMETERY, LE CATEAUNord, France

Grave or Reference I. A. 9.

Panel Number:

Location: Le Cateau is a small town about 19 kilometres south-east of Cambrai. Highland Cemetery is about 1 kilometre south of the town on the D12 road to Wassigny.

Historical Information: After the Battle of Le Cateau (26th August, 1914), the town remained in German hands until the middle of October, 1918. Plot III (which is the original cemetery) was made by the 50th (Northumbrian) Division after the fighting of the 17th October; and the name of Highland Cemetery is suggestive at once of the comparatively high ground on which it stands and of the thirty-two graves of the 13th (Scottish Horse) Battalion, Black Watch, found in this Plot. The cemetery was greatly enlarged after the Armistice by the concentration of graves (of October and November, 1918) from isolated positions on all sides of Le Cateau. There are now over 600, 1914-18 war casualties commemorated in this site. Of these, over 60 are unidentified. The cemetery covers an area of 2,292 square metres and is enclosed by a wall.

Ton-up for Effie!

● Effie Saunders celebrates.

A TOWN'S very own Queen Mum celebrated her 100th birthday this week with a right royal knees-up.

Effie Saunders from Fairlawn Road, Tadley, threw a party at St Paul's church hall for her family and friends—in return for a surprise party they gave her for her 90th birthday.

Her sister, Ivy, a mere youngster at 91, flew over from Canada for the occasion, the first time the sisters had met in 15 years.

Together with their other sister, Gladys, 83, who also lives in Tadley, the trio had quite a bit to catch up on.

Effie, who still lives in the house where she was born, has seven children and 13 grandchildren.

She enjoys gardening and is a keen organ player.

As well as receiving a card from the Queen, Effie, who is affectionately known as the Queen of Tadley, had dozens of flowers and cards from other well-wishers.

"I didn't think I was so well known," she laughed.

B.G. 6/8/1990

100th Birthday

One hundred years old, why it's hard to believe,
How did she do it, what's she got up her sleeve.
As bright as a button, quite sprightly and able,
Still ruling her house and head of her table.

Born a Cripps, well that gave a good start,
Raised on a farm, pigs, cows, horse and cart.
Still lives in the house where she started her life,
Holding memories of childhood, a girl and a wife.
Raising her children through good times and bad,
Making the best of whatever they had.

No buses or cars—if you're lucky a bike,
A man on the moon—never heard of the like!
No electric light, t'was oil lamp or candle,
Water to drink from a well, drawn up by handle.
Two world wars—those were grim days
They changed her life in so many ways.

We wish her much joy and hope she keeps well,
She has a wealth of memories and stories to tell.
So Happy Birthday dear Effie, good health we say gladly,
To a grand little lady, who lives in 'Old Tadley'

—Jean Monger, Tadley.
