Subject: Benham Family Tree

Hi Derek I have just stumbled onto the web site for the Tadley and district History Society and noticed that you have listed at item 226 the Benham Family Tree. I have been researching my wives and my own family history for a number of years now but as i am in Australia I find it quite hard at times to find records from overseas. My wives great great grandfather was George Benham he was born in 1842 at Tadley and died around 1895. I believe he married Dorcas surname unknown and they had at least 6 children: Thomas c1871, George c1877, Dorcas c1879, William c1880, Minnie c1887 and Joseph c1888 (my wives great grandfather) Joseph came to Australia prior to WW1 and joined the Australian Army, after the war he went back to England where he married Elsie Neighbour. I would really appreciate it if you could possibly send me a copy of the family tree you have on record if it should turn out to be the same family.

Yours Sincerely

Peter Major

OBITUARY

Mrs Elsie Bennett

SALVATION Army member Elsie Bennett of Tadley has died, aged 87.

Her father, Fred Rampton, took her to Tadley Citadel when she was very young and she became a committed soldier and songster, singing and speaking at rallies, meetings and services, flooded she moved to the home where she spent the rest of her days, Mothes giving her simple message of love and hope to many.

On her marriage to Jim Bennett, Elsie moved to the Basingstoke Corps, and there followed many happy years with her friends.

Close friend and neighbour Evelyn Woodall said: "The passing of a soldier is a sad occasion and we mourn, but we look back on the life of a Salvationist who loved the Lord and we are no longer sorrowful because she is in His care."

She rejoined the Tadley Corps after moving back to the Tadley area, to a house in Pamber Green.

When Jim died, Elsie continued her work of evangelism at women's meetings and churches.

After her house was

A service will be held today at Tadley Salvation Army Citadel.

BENNETT Elsie peacefully at BDH on June 29th. Funeral Tadley Salvation Army Friday 3rd July 11am. No flowers, donations to Tadley S.A. 'In Gods keeping'.

GOLDEN WEDDING REPORT, BASINGSTOKE GAZETTE, 4/1/1994

BASINGSTOKE GAZETTE DEATHS.

Blind date couple's 50 years

● Albert and Rose...blessed with a wonderful family.

IF ALBERT Bentall had to turn back the clock 50 years he'd wed his wife Rose all over again.

The happy couple were married on Christmas Day of 1943 in wartime Hull, Yorkshire.

Rose and Albert, both 73, moved to Baughurst in 1956 when Albert was offered a better job at AWRE.

Albert described his 50 years of marriage as a "give and take" relationship.

He said: "You have to take each other as you are at face value, we are all unique in our own way."

"Arguments will happen, they do in every marriage but you just take them in your stride."

"If I had to turn the clock back I'd marry Rose again."

The couple, of Port Way, Baughurst, met on a blind date which was arranged by Rose's sister.

The Baughurst bride-to-be laughed when Albert told her she was the girl for him on their first date but it turned out to be a wise boast.

They miss the North occasionally but are happy to be so close to their only son Tony and his wife Janice, who also live in Baughurst.

Grandsons David, 15, and Steven, 11, visit Rose and Albert every week and the couple consider themselves very lucky to have such a caring family.

"We're blessed with a wonderful son and a wife who takes good care of them all," said Albert.

The pair celebrated their golden years with family at the Queen's College Arms, Pamber End, and Albert promised that the landlord would see them again for their diamond wedding.

TRAGEDY: Leukaemia claims life of brave Tadley 26-year-old WARREN LOSES FIGHT

By Jenny Makin

TRAGIC Tadley cancer victim Warren Berrington has lost his brave fight for life.

The 26-year-old, who lived in Crookham Close, had been in remission after being struck down with leukaemia in August, 1998.

But the cancer returned 12 months later and, although he defied doctors' predictions that he only had one month to live, Warren finally lost his fight for life last Sunday.

Before he died, Warren - who was due to marry in April - did manage to achieve his wish to hold his sister's new-born baby.

Warren's condition deteriorated in January this year after the former AWE employee had been away for a weekend and was hit by food poisoning.

He was rushed to hospital where doctors blasted him with antibiotics, but he then contracted septicaemia followed by pneumonia and had no immune system to fight the infection.

Warren's devastated cousin Denise Black, who owns The Treacle Mine pub in Silchester

Road, Tadley, said: "He had started to get better and had even been on holiday to Greece, settled into a new job and bought himself a car, when he was told that the leukaemia had come back.

"He went back into Basingstoke hospital last August and he stayed there until October, but he didn't reach remission this time and he was told he only had a month left to live. Even so, he was always grateful for the care they gave him."

Denise added: "Warren then decided to move to Bridport in Dorset to be with his parents for what little time he had left."

Warren's hope returned when doctors at the hospital near his parents' home offered to continue giving him blood, platelets and chemotherapy.

Denise recalled: "His hair had fallen out, he had lost an awful amount of weight and he was being sick all the time."

"But he continued to fight and spent a really nice Christmas at home with his family and his girlfriend, Nanette, who he had met and fallen in love with in November and who he planned to marry on April 29."

"He was a big fan of rock band Shed 7, who called to see him when he was in Basingstoke hospital and used to drop off concert tickets when they were passing."

"After they heard he had died last Sunday, they lit a candle for him in church."

Denise added: "I feel so sorry for Warren's parents. He was a fertility baby and their first child. They had been trying for years and are absolutely devastated."

Warren, who used to play for Tadley Football Club and was an avid Manchester United fan, spent the whole of last week in hospital on oxygen.

Denise said: "His sister Faye, who lives in Bramley, gave birth to her first child last week. Warren knew the baby was due any day and he was holding on - he wanted to see his first niece or nephew born."

Faye gave birth to a little girl last Tuesday in Basingstoke hospital and was released early so Warren could see his niece.

"He held her in his arms and he was really pleased," Denise said.

A coachload of Tadley residents will be leaving on Tuesday morning to attend his funeral, which takes place at 11am in Bridport.

Steam enthusiasts sad death

Mr Roy Billington... as many will remember him at the controls of his model steam engine.

A MAN who brought a by-gone era to thousands of children has died after unsuccessful heart surgery.

Mr Roy Billington, known throughout the area for his miniature steam engines, was 73.

He moved to the area from North Wales in the early 1950s to work at the then AWRE at Aldermaston as an electrical engineer.

He later transferred to Harwell but stayed in the family home he shared with wife Betty in Almswood Road, Tadley.

An avid sailor, he built his own boats and was a keen caravanner as well.

But he was best known for miles around for the miniature steam engines he built himself and took to fairs and shows around the area, giving all his takings to the cause of the day.

His best known pitch was the AWRE annual sports day where he would usually see his favoured Black Five replica to tow children and parents alike along the 150 yards of track he ferried and set out himself.

After sharing his working life roughly between Aldermaston and Harwell, he retired in 1985 but still busied himself with his charity work and hobbies.

His son Nigel, married with two daughters and living in Kempshott, said after the funeral: "He didn't enjoy retirement very much. He missed the people."

His daughter Judith Crichton flew over from her home in San Jose, California, for the packed memorial service at St Mary's Church, Tadley.

His sudden death was a blow to everyone, said Nigel. "He will be sadly missed by everyone, not just the family, but all the friends he made over the years."

DEATHS

BILLINGTON In hospital on 18th August 1993. Roy was a dear husband, father and grandfather. Sadly missed by all his family and friends. Funeral at St. Mary's Church, Tadley, on 27th August at 11.30am. Family only. Donations to the Intensive Care Unit, Southampton General Hospital. Cheques payable to B. Steam engine man dies aged 73

A MAN who brought a by-gone era to thousands of children has died.

Mr Roy Billington, known throughout the area for his miniature steam engine, was 73.

A keen sailor and caravanner, he brought pleasure and a touch of the past, particularly in the Tadley area where he lived.

He moved to the area from North Wales in the early 1960s to take a job as electrical engineer at the then AWRE, at Aldermaston.

He later moved to Harwell but continued to live in Almswood Road, Tadley, with his wife Betty, but was still a regular hit at the AWRE annual sports day, towing youngsters up and down a 150ft length of narrow-gauge rail behind a series of steam engines he built himself.

His daughter Judith flew from her home in San Jose, California, for today's funeral with a memorial service at St Mary's Church, Tadley.

Paying tribute to his father, son Nigel said: "He will be remembered by thousands for his steam engine. If it was in a good cause, he would travel anywhere locally with his engine for nothing to make sure all the takings went for the charity."

B. G. 27/8/1993.

Mrs Betty Billington

A MEMORIAL service is being held for Betty Billington, 73, who died of a stroke in Basingstoke hospital, on Monday of last week.

She was a happy and bright personality whose physical size belied a very strong character with a vibrant and kindly nature.

She had enormous energy and she was actively involved with the AWE Fellowship and the Women's Institute, where she ran the market up until a week before she died.

Betty, a well known personality in Tadley, had been a member of the WI for 43 years.

She will be best remembered as the "Brown Owl", since she ran the 3rd Tadley Brownies for 30 years, from 1959-1989. She was so popular that at one stage there were 40 youngsters on the waiting list to join the pack.

The memorial service is being held at St Mary's, Church Road, Tadley, at 11.30 this morning.

MARRIED 14/8/1993.

● Lindon and Laraine Black after their wedding

Couple's grand exit

WHEN Laraine John and Lindon Black left St Paul's Church, Tadley, after their wedding, they did it in style with a pony and trap—and held up the traffic in the town.

Laraine, of Hawkey Drive, Tadley, who is a teacher at The Hurst School, Baughurst, was given away by her father, Raymond John.

She was attended by best friend Della Woodruff, sisters Karen Fuller and Glenda John, goddaughter Felicity Signell and bridegroom's nieces Joanne and Gemma Black. Bridegroom's nephew Christopher Black was a pageboy.

Best man at the ceremony was Paul Fuller.

The couple met seven years ago at Owen and Owen when Laraine was doing holiday work, and Lindon was working as a security guard.

An exotic honeymoon in the Dominican Republic followed the reception at Pamher Heath Memorial Hall.

Dad 'rescued'

Sir—I would like to thank the person very much who “rescued” my 95-year-old father last Tuesday when he went for a tour of Tadley in his pyjamas at 5.45am.

It's not an everyday occurrence, thank goodness, but worrying for all of us, although he has done it once before.

He enjoyed his chat and cup of tea at Basingstoke police station and, when I collected him, said "They were a good crowd"!

Golden Wedding Anniversaries

Honeymoon revisited

HONEYMOON haunts will be revisited by a Basingstoke couple when they celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

Cynthia and David Blunden, of St Peters Road, South Ham, are heading to Bournemouth where they spent a happy honeymoon 50 years ago.

Their anniversary, which falls tomorrow, is always a double celebration for Mrs Blunden as she married on her 21st birthday.

The couple met a few days before her 18th birthday.

Mr Blunden, 73, said: "We used to enjoy going to the pictures and for long walks together. Cynthia's father was a preacher so we used to go to church once a week too."

Their wedding took place at Baughurst Methodist Church with the reception in the hall next door.

After their honeymoon, they lived in a caravan at Eastrop Park for a few weeks, before moving to Worthing Road, Basingstoke.

The couple will also be celebrating with their family in August at a joint party with their daughter Diane, 43, who will be marking her silver wedding anniversary.

Along with eldest daughter Wendy, 45, and son Malcolm, 39, the Blundens will be joined by 23 family members including their seven grandchildren, two great grandchildren and two step-great grandchildren.

The couple said that having independent interests has helped their marriage stay strong over the years. Mrs Blunden said: "I help with the flowers at St Andrew's Church and David plays skittles. We also discuss everything."

Mr and Mrs Blunden also said their different views on religion have not affected their marriage.

Mr Blunden said: "I wasn't much of a churchgoer before we met and I'm still not now. When Cynthia goes to church I stay at home and start to cook the dinner - but I never get very far!"

Sportsman and teacher who cared for young

GLYN Bond, 60, died from an apparent heart attack at his Tadley home on Tuesday, March 24.

Glyn was a Basingstoke borough councillor for four years from 1983 and was a member of Tadley Town Council for eight years during the 1980s.

He was a keen golfer and became a captain of Bishopswood Golf Club two years ago.

Glyn leaves a wife Rosemary, and two children, Susie and Nick.

On Valentine's Day this year, his family organised a surprise birthday party for Glyn at the Old Mill in Aldermaston, attended by about 80 family and friends.

During his speech, Glyn spoke about his recently diagnosed prostate cancer and the treatment he was receiving.

He was positive about his future. He had finished his treatment shortly before his death.

Glyn was born in the village of Yoxford in East Suffolk, and in his youth had sprinted for East Suffolk and had a trial with Ipswich Town FC - the club he supported throughout his life.

Glyn later became a teacher and spent 29 years at Emmbrook Comprehensive in Wokingham, retiring in 1994.

During his time at the school he became heavily involved in buying and restoring the derelict mansion "Tirabad" in Mid Wales.

The mansion is now regularly used by pupils from both The Hurst and Burnham Copse schools in Tadley. —David Leeks.

14 - 2 - 1938 - 24 - 3 - 98

Rosemary, Susie and Nick Bond would like to thank everyone for their great love, kindnesses and support since Glyn's sudden but peaceful death at home very recently. Glyn was a much loved husband and father. He was a family man and a Suffolk man. He was a loyal Bishopswood Golfer, also an inspiration to many Berkshire County Schoolboy footballers and Hampshire Schoolboy Golfers.

Retired Emmbrook Wokingham teacher. Hurst School Governor, former Basingstoke Borough Councillor and Tadley Town Councillor.

Glyn was a wise, respected and happy friend to everyone.

Funeral service has taken place, movingly conducted by Rev. Barry Norris of Tadley, Rev. Peter Joslin of Wokingham and ably supported by Funeral Director Geoffrey Church.

Thank you for the hundreds of letters and cards, also Donations to Imperial Cancer Research. Any further donations may be sent c/o Geoffrey Church & Co, Funeral Directors, 48 Bishopswood Road, Tadley, RG26 4HD.

Thank you, everyone for your love and support for my family and me. I will reply to you in the fullness of time. ROSEMARY BOND.

MURDER PROBE AS MAN DIES

POLICE have launched a murder investigation after a man was found dead in his bedroom.

● Scenes of Crime officers and a forensic team prepare to enter the house.

Shock in quiet close

NEIGHBOURS in the quiet suburban close were shocked and visibly upset to learn of Mr Bosley's death.

"It's awful, you don't expect this kind of thing to happen in a quiet area like this," said one woman who asked not to be named.

Another man who knew the Bosleys quite well said: "They were a very nice couple. We were concerned about Tom at first when the police came round but we were glad to hear he was with his grandparents."

"Tom is a smashing lad, really nice and our hearts are sad to hear and his grandparents. "They often turned up spontaneously to babysit or just to visit."

Another neighbour, Judy Brown, said: "We notice what goes on day to day but generally we all keep ourselves to ourselves."

"This is just an average road with average people."

Mr Bosley was often seen walking his dog around the close.

"He often smiled and said hello but that was about it," said one woman.

"I just can't believe he's dead," she

The victim has been named as Barry Bosley, believed to be in his 30s, of Sarisbury Close, Tadley.

Police and an ambulance crew discovered his body in the front-facing bedroom shortly after 6am yesterday.

They were tipped-off by

They spent most of yesterday morning at the house carrying out investigations.

Meanwhile, other residents in the close were being woken from their sleep by detectives carrying out house-to-house inquiries.

Mr Bosley's body was eventually removed from the house by undertakers just before midday and taken to Basingstoke hospital where a post mortem was carried out.

The examination found that he had died from multiple stab wounds to his back and legs.

Insp Lawrence confirmed: "We are treating this as a murder inquiry."

Mr and Mrs Bosley moved to Sarisbury Close in 1983.

He had had a kidney transplant some years ago and was medically retired.

Tragedy

The couple's son Thomas is a pupil at Bishopwood junior school in Tadley.

He is being looked after by Mrs Bosley's parents, Joyce and John, at their home in Thatcham.

A policeman sitting with them at their house yesterday afternoon said they were "too upset" to talk about the tragedy.

A woman is currently helping Basingstoke police with their inquiries.

THE WIFE of a Tadley man killed last week has died in London's Holloway prison just hours after appearing in court charged with his murder.

Forty-two-year-old Mr Barry Bosley was apparently stabbed to death at the home he shared with his wife, Claire, in Sarisbury Close, Tadley. After finding her husband's body in Tadley, police arrested 34-year old Mrs Bosley shortly before dawn on Thursday at her parents address in Pipit Close, Thatcham.

The couple's nine-year-old son, Thomas is being cared for by his grandparents.

The Metropolitan Police have launched an investigation into Mrs Bosley's death on Saturday afternoon. She is believed to have choked to death on tissues and the police have said they do not suspect foul play. A post mortem was due to be held yesterday (Monday).

A statement issued by the Metropolitan Police said they were called to the prison with ambulance crews shortly before 3pm after Mrs Bosley's body had been found in the toilet area of reception cells.

At 10 am on Saturday Mrs Bosley had appeared before Basingstoke Magistrates, who were sitting at Aldershot, where she was charged with Mr Bosley's murder.

She was remanded to Holloway until December 4 and then transported to the only remand prison for women in the South.

Mr Bosley, a former worker from the Atomic

Mrs Claire Bosley, who apparently took her own life on Saturday, was accused of killing her husband at their home in Sarisbury Close, Tadley.

Weapons Establishment at Aldermaston, was a kidney patient, having successfully recovered from a second transplant operation.

Although his wife was arrested by Thames Valley Police in Thatcham, because Mrs Bosley was alleged to have killed her husband in Tadley, Hampshire, the incident was investigated by Basingstoke CID.

A murder incident room set up at Basingstoke police station on Thursday last week was being closed down and detectives said they were not looking for anyone else in connection with the death of Barry Bosley.

THE NEWBURY ADVERTISER 28/11/1995

Inquest opened on tragic family mum

AN INQUEST has been opened at the City of London Coroners Court into the death of Claire Bosley who was found in her Holloway Prison cell on November 25 with tissues stuffed down her throat.

Secretary Claire, 34, was on remand charged with murdering her 42-year-old husband Barry on November 23 at the couple's £120,000 detached home at Sarisbury Close, Tadley, as their eight-year-old son Thomas slept.

She had been remanded by Aldershot magistrates, who were told she had already attempted suicide following her arrest for allegedly stabbing her husband, a kidney transplant patient who formerly worked at the Atomic Weapons Establishment, Aldermaston.

Her brother, Mr David Rummins, of Newbury, identified Mrs Bosley to the court, and coroner Dr Douglas Chambers adjourned the inquest to a date to be fixed.

Mr and Mrs Bosley's son Thomas was later being cared for by Mr Bosley's parents in Thatcham, near Newbury.

Barry and Claire Bosley had been married for 14 years.

Mr Bosley had been medically retired for three years from the AWE because of failing health.

His kidney problems culminated in a successful transplant in 1986.

Mr Bosley's elder sister Linda Hunt, of Peachey Drive, Thatcham, said: "Barry lived for his son.

"He believed that, due to his illness, he would never be able to have children. So when Tom came along, it was like an angel sent from heaven."

Mrs Hunt said the thought of Tom pulled Barry through his illness.

"Even when he was very ill

he used to go and play football with Tom. He even built him a huge adventure playground in the back garden."

Mr Bosley became a helper at Bishopswood Junior School, Tadley, where Tom is a pupil.

Bishopswood head Wendy Rawlins said Mr Bosley had a gift with children and had been asked to become a governor.

"We all liked him very much. He was a smashing guy and will be greatly missed by everyone at the school."

After his retirement, Barry took over housework duties from his wife.

Claire's brother, David Rummins, said through his solicitors that the events had caused "deep sorrow" to both families and asked that they be allowed privacy to mourn.

An inquest into Mr Bosley's death has been opened and adjourned until January 9.
