A match made on the buses

A BUS ride proved just the ticket for Teresa Reilly and Adam Cripps.

It was while taking a trip that they first set eyes on each other and now, four years later, they have been married.

The ceremony took place at St Michael's Catholic

Church, in Tadley, and the couple planned to spend their honeymoon in Torquay.

The couple will live in Liverpool where Adam is studying psychology, but they hope eventually to settle closer to their families in Tadley and Reading.

The Arras Memorial is in the Faubourg-d'Amiens Cemetery, which is in the Boulevard du General de Gaulle in the western part of the town of Arras. The cemetery is near the Citadel, approximately 2 kilometres due west of the railway station. The Memorial commemorates almost 35,000 casualties of the British, New Zealand and South African Forces who died between Spring 1916 and 7th August 1918, with the exception of casualties of the Battle of Cambrai in 1917, and who have no known grave. The design, by Sir Edward Lutyens, consists of a cloister, 25 feet high and 380 feet long, built up on Doric columns and faces west. In the broader part of the site the colonnade returns to form a recessed and open court, terminated by an apse. The names of the casualties are carved on stone panels fixed to the cloister walls.

INFORMATION FROM JENNIFER WADE,

WILLIAM AND ANN CRIPPSTracing family

Sir.-Like many others I am currently compiling my family trees and am seeking information about my paternal great-grandparents and grandfather.

My great-grandparents were William and Ann Cripps, who I believe were both from Tadley. They had at least four children - William, Annie, Thomas (my grandfather) and Rosie - and by 1901, Ann, now a widow, and three of the children were living in the Hammersmith district of London.

My grandfather also had four children - Thomas (my father), Arthur, Grace and Leonard - and the family lived in Shepherds Bush, London.

Auntie Grace could remember coming to Tadley as a child (in the late 1920s and early 1930s) and staying on a farm with relatives, one of whom was called Annie.

If anyone has any information, I would love to hear from them.
