New boss takes over RAF base

3:51pm Thursday 17th June 2010

Print Email Share Comments(0)

By Jen Rivett »

COMMAND of RAF Brize Norton has been handed over.

Air Commodore Jon Ager has handed control of the base over to Group Captain Dom Stamp.

Group Captain Stamp said: "I feel an immense sense of pride, and humility, in assuming command of such an important, operationally-focused, and historically acclaimed station."

Group Captain Stamp joined the Royal Air Force in 1988, and was posted to the Hercules for the first of four tours.

During this time, he was part of operations in the Gulf War, the Falkland Islands, the Balkans, Sierra Leone, and the humanitarian relief effort in Rwanda.

Qualified as a tactical air transport flight instructor and the station's VIP instructor pilot, he also held the mantle of type air refuelling instructor. Group Captain Stamp, who is married to Sheena and has a daughter, Deanna, and a son, Euan, has also flown as a member of the Hercules formation display team, and shows off the tactical abilities of the aircraft as the unit's display pilot.

From 2006 to 2008, Group Captain Stamp commanded No 30 Squadron, which involved operations in both Iraq and Afghanistan.

He was promoted to Group Captain in January this year.

His interests include history, fitness training, playing music, and spending time with his family.

Air Commodore Ager has moved on to take up a post of Air Command, in RAF High Wycombe.

I am currently researching my family tree and have placed them onto a simply family tree document. Born in Reading I have traced my family back to the areas surrounding PAMBER from the 1720's- 1890's. I would be more than happy to provide details if anyone else is interested And can be contacted by email to either Stamp366@fsmail.net Or Peter.Stamp@Thamesvalley.Police.UK
