INFORMATION FROM ANNE STANLEY

Bonnets and wigs for Methodists following their founder's route

MANNINGTREE Methodists dressed in period costume formed a Procession of Witness to mark the 250th anniversary of their founder John Wesley.

They followed the mile-and-a-half route Mr. Wesley would have taken along Mistle Walls when he visited the area more than 200 years ago.

Women in long skirts, aprons, shawls and bonnets, and men wearing wigs and long black coats or labourers' attire accompanied a man on horseback, representing Mr. Wesley, along the route on Saturday.

Conversion

They arrived at Manningtree Market Cross for a packed open air service led by Rev. Derek Lang.

The events to mark Mr. Wesley's conversion to Christianity on May 24, 1738, also included a flower festival in the church in South Street, and an exhibition in Manningtree library.

Tomorrow, there will be a festival of praise at the church, for all Methodists in the Manningtree and Harwich circuit.

STANLEY

On Wednesday, December 1st, 1993, Vern Stanley passed away. He would have been 82 years young on December 19th, 1993.

He was born in Vernon, and when the First World War was on his family returned to England to work on the family farm. In 1924 they came back to the Okanagan to live permanently.

Vern worked for the CP Telecommunications for 46 years. He was CP Telegrapher and agent in Kamloops, in New Westminster, and two sessions of happy years in Revelstoke. He loved the outdoors and was an active member of the Kamloops Outdoor Club in its early years.

He is survived by Alice, his loving wife of 51 years, his daughters; Joy Wild, Anne Stanley, and Valerie Cross, five granddaughters; Jennifer, Erin, and Kate Wild, Georgia Stanley, Jodi Cross, and one little grandson, Nathan Cross. He will be missed by his three sisters; Annie Basham, Dorothy Smith, Ivy Rathjen, and his two brothers Frank and Bill Stanley, family and friends; a host of nieces and nephews will miss "Uncle Vern".

A Memorial Service will be held at Kamloops United Church on Saturday, December 4th, 1993 at 1:30 P.M.

Should friends wish, donations in memory of Vern, in lieu of flowers, may be made to Children's Hospital, or to the Royal Inland Hospital Foundation of Kamloops.

Ladies Club: Several members were absent – still enjoying summer holidays. Birthday buttonholes were presented to Sally Hanford, Betty Manser and Jean Butler. We also gave a card, signed by members, to Anne and Bill Stanley who have been married 50 years.

Ramsdell

RAMSDELL LADIES' CLUB - Our February meeting was held in the Village Hall. Apologies were received from Jan Garratt and Ena Menarry. A birthday buttonhole was presented to Barbara Reed. Our speaker was Mr Bill Stanley, who talked on the Ramsdell Cricket Club – from when it started in the 1930's until the present day, with some lovely old photographs of teams over the years. A really interesting and amusing talk on a piece of local history.
